

CREATIVE MEMBERSHIP

As a hub of creativity in the ACT, The Street Theatre encourages theatre lovers and practitioners alike to participate in the cultural life of the ACT and help with the ongoing development of a performing arts culture that promotes exciting concepts and provocative ideas. For all interested artists and performers, we offer a unique creative members program, full of rewards and benefits over a 12 month period. As a member of our creative collective, you will have access to networking sessions, development space and activities plus regular updates on information related to the sector.
